When complete, please mail, fax or email your application to our office. While we would love to speak with all prospective vendors individually, the high volume of applications we receive combined with our regular workload does not always allow for this.

Once we have reviewed your application we will contact you if we are interested.

Although we do not want to discourage prospective vendors from applying, we would like applicants to have a realistic understanding of the availability of space at AIM's markets. We receive a high volume of applications and many of our markets are currently full with an extensive waiting list. Please take this information into consideration before submitting your application.

Return completed application packet to:
